SSP Srinagar Chairs Thana Diwas Cum Lok Darbar at Anchur, Soura; Emphasizes Police-Public Cooperation

Srinagar, November 13, 2026: In a continued effort to strengthen Police-Public relations and promote community-oriented policing, Srinagar Police organized Thana Diwas cum Lok Darbar programs across various police stations and police posts in the district, providing a platform for direct interaction with the public and redressal of their grievances.

As part of the initiative, a special Thana Diwas cum Lok Darbar was held at Anchur, Soura, chaired by SSP Srinagar, Dr. G.V. Sundeep Chakravarty, IPS, accompanied by SP Hazratbal, SDPO Hazratbal, and SHO Police Station Soura.

The program witnessed active participation from local residents, traders, religious leaders, mosque committees, and other prominent members of civil society.

Addressing the gathering, SSP Srinagar emphasized that peace, security, and development are shared responsibilities of the police and the public. He reiterated that Srinagar Police remains committed to people-friendly policing, building mutual trust, and ensuring a safe and secure environment for every citizen.

He highlighted the importance of sustained community engagement, particularly involving youth, religious leaders, and other stakeholders, in preventing drug abuse, criminal activities, and other social evils. He urged the public to remain vigilant and share credible information with the police to help maintain peace and public order.

During the interactive session, participants raised various grievances and issues concerning their localities. SSP Srinagar patiently heard their concerns and directed the concerned officers to ensure prompt and time-bound redressal of police-related grievances. He further assured that matters concerning civil administration would be taken up with the respective departments for necessary action.

The participants appreciated the initiative and expressed satisfaction over the opportunity to interact directly with senior police officers. They reaffirmed their commitment to maintaining peace, communal harmony, and social cohesion, besides extending full cooperation to Srinagar Police in combating drug abuse and criminal activities. A written assurance reflecting this commitment was also submitted by the participants.

SSP Srinagar assured the gathering that the doors of Srinagar Police would always remain open to the public, stressing that regular dialogue, mutual respect, and collective responsibility are essential for building lasting peace and public confidence.

The program concluded on a positive note, reaffirming the collective resolve of Srinagar Police and the community to work together towards a peaceful, drug-free, and secure Srinagar. #SrinagarPolice

BJP Kashmir Spokespersons Hold Strategy Meeting with Sunil Sethi

BJP Kashmir Spokespersons Hold Strategy Meeting with Sunil Sethi

Leaders discuss prevailing political situation, organisational priorities and party's outreach in Jammu and Kashmir coordination and sharpening communication on political and public issues

Srinagar, Nov 12: The Bharatiya Janata Party's (BJP) Kashmir-based spokespersons on Thursday held a meeting with the party's Jammu and Kashmir Chief Spokesperson, Sunil Sethi, to discuss the prevailing political scenario and key organisational matters in the Union Territory.

The meeting was attended by BJP spokespersons Altaf Thakur, Manzoor Bhat, Sahil Bashir and Danish Bhat. Party spokesperson Pramoksh Sethi was also present.

The interaction featured a brief but wide-ranging discussion on the evolving political situation in Jammu and Kashmir, with particular focus on important political developments and issues concerning the party's organisational functioning.

The participants exchanged views on the prevailing political atmosphere and the need for effective communication of the party's positions on matters of public importance. The discussion also touched upon organisational priorities and the role of party spokespersons in presenting its policies, responding to political developments and taking its message to the people.

The meeting assumes significance amid an evolving political landscape in Jammu and Kashmir, where political parties are seeking to consolidate their positions and strengthen their public engagement.

in shaping the party's public narrative, articulating its response to emerging issues and communicating its stand on governance, development and political developments. Their coordination is particularly important in a politically sensitive region where public discourse frequently revolves around governance, employment, development and the restoration of statehood.

The interaction with Sethi provided an opportunity for the Kashmir-based spokespersons to exchange perspectives on the current political environment and discuss organisational matters with the party's senior communication leadership.

The meeting concluded with discussions on the importance of maintaining coordination and ensuring that the party's views and positions are communicated effectively across the region.
